STOLEN CHILD GASE READY FOR TRIAL

A case of alleged receiving and har-oring a stolen child, Territory vs. lane Doe Chilton, alias Josephine Chilon continued from last term, was alled by Judge Gear this morning and answered ready. W. T. Rawlins and J. W. Catheart for defendant.

As the grand jury had a report to make and several prisoners had to be arraigned, the jurors were excused un-til 2 o'clock this afternoon, when a jury will be called to the box to try the matter.

It is said that obtaining a jury will not be an easy affair and it is anticipated that a special venire will be ordered before the hearing commences.

One of the witnesses for the defense unobtainable. He is absent from Hopolulu. His deposition may be securat or testimony already given by him, on record, may be admitted.
